Anthrocon 2011 is a wrap. Let the PCD begin!

The con has officially come to an end. It's been one spectacularly hectic one. 4396 photos so far, and there's still the dead dog.

Thanks to everyone who said hello. Please enjoy the noms.

Oh by the way, I do make those little wooden tags myself (shameless plug goes here). I can make larger con badges, aluminum dog tags, and lots more. If that's something you like, drop a message in my FurAffinity .

And of course, my Anthrocon 2011 photo gallery .
