No, I will not work for your con.

The idea for an Alberta's own convention isn't new. It's been a dream since my high school days. 2012 will mark the Fur-Eh! inaugural year, and the year we finally got off our lazy asses.

Fur-Eh! is Edmonton's mid-spring furry convention. I've been barely skirting actually staffing, and because of that the con went amazing well. Over 200 attendees from across North America, whole lotta fursuits, and a Russian bellhop named Igor. Perfect.

Best of luck next year. And, Fur-Eh! 2012 Photostream .
